JUST AS CHRIST

Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so God will be given glory. (NLT) (Romans 15:7)

Everyone is walking around seeking to be accepted and when it's found, that's where influence makes a real impact on their lives. Skin color, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, intelligence, political beliefs, financial status, are often reasons why we refuse to reach out. Remember this, acceptance is not synonymous with approval. Does Jesus accept you even though you do things He doesn't approve of? Absolutely!! So why would we expect others to change before we can accept them? We have to be mindful that we should love and forgive like Jesus.

If we strive to be just like Christ, then we will have that Agape love that loves unconditionally. We will forgive them, so that we can be forgiven. We will help those that are in need, and judge not. To be like Christ, is to be Christ-like. The Bible is available to help us, because the Bible are the instructions of how we are to live here on this earth.

God's Servant & Yours,
